Mount Sinai, NY - On Friday, May 14th, Brookhaven Town Councilwoman Jane Bonner lent her support to the "Ride for Life" event which was held at Mount Sinai's Heritage Park. The event's purpose was to recognize and welcome ALS patients who are traveling in their wheelchairs across Long Island in an effort to foster awareness and help generate increased funding for combating this fatal neuromuscular disease.

Ride for Life's mission is to raise public awareness of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis assist research in finding a cure, support ALS patients and their families, and provide the ALS community with the latest ALS related news and information.

Joining Councilwoman Bonner at this event were Suffolk County Legislator Daniel P. Losquadro and Brookhaven Highway Supervisor John Rouse.
